We reserve the right in our absolute discretion to decline any application for membership without giving any reason for so doing, and in such case any joining fee and subscription paid in advance will be refunded.

Membership is not transferable.

Each Member shall pay to the Club each month by direct debit a monthly membership fee (unless an alternative payment arrangement is agreed in writing by us), as stated in our standard price list at the commencement of membership and as may be varied with effect from 1st January annually or otherwise, on not less than 3 months' notice.

Any person whose membership is terminated in this way shall not be entitled to enter the Club's premises as a guest of any Member or otherwise unless and until readmitted as a Member in accordance with these conditions.

We will endeavour to keep the Club's facilities operating during our opening hours as published from time to time but Members acknowledge that such facilities and/or the Club may be shut from time to time for necessary cleaning, decorating, repairs or for reasons beyond our control. Whilst we will endeavour to minimise disruption to Member's use of the facilities we have no liability to Members in respect of the same.
